May 21, 2026

Logic and Expression I

First Semester Mid-Term Examination

for First-Year Students (40 minutes)

May 21, 2026

First Semester Mid-Term Logic and Expression I Examination for First-Year Students (40 minutes)

※ Write your answers to the questions on the ANSWER SHEET.

I. In the dialogues below, underlined parts 1) and 2) [ ] contain three options: a), b) and c). Select the most appropriate one and write the matching letter, not the word, on the ANSWER SHEET. (2×14)

1) A: Since his wife died last year, my grandfather has lived alone, so my mother 1) [a) calls on / b) puts out / c) takes off] him regularly. She asks me to come along, but I can hardly meet her request. I'm quite busy with club activities.

B: Yeah, that's right. 2) [a) I belong to / b) I'm belonging / c) I'm belonging to] the baseball team, but practice sessions keep us busy even on weekends.

2) A: I hear that you're on the tennis team. I wonder what 1) [a) you do / b) you'll be doing / c) you're doing] when it suddenly starts to rain.

B: It depends on the individual. Some members prefer to be hanging out in the club room, while others don't. I go home because I don't want to 2) [a) find / b) keep / c) remain] there, without any purpose.

3) A: I'm on my way, Kathy, so I'll be there in ten minutes or so. Anyway, 1) [a) do / / b) do you / c) don't] wait for me, and get the party started.

B: Come on, John. You're the main guest. We can't start until 2) [a) you / b) you'll / c) you're going to] arrive.

4) A: I was really surprised when the U.S. military operation against Iran [a) broke out / b) brought up / c) figured out] at the end of February. It was almost a surprise attack.

B: Yeah, that's right. Donald Trump has made the world confused, and besides, no one knows when the confusion 2) [a) ends / b) is ending / c) will end].

5) A: Wow! You look really 1) [a) beautiful / b) impressively / c) officially] in white.

B: Thanks so much, but this dress doesn't fit well. 2) [a) It'll be seeming / b) It's seeming / c) It seems] a little bit tight.

6) A: There were 1) [a) a big convenience store / b) a couple of convenience stores / c) the famous convenient stores] around here, but last year, they both went bankrupt. This feels inconvenient.

B: I know what you're saying. It's a great pity that as the economy becomes worse, you 2) [a) find / b) offer / c) spare] convenience stores disappearing one after another, because this means less and less convenience.

7) A: I have a question, Ms. Nicks. Who 1) [a) did they invent / b) invented / c) were they inventing] AI, or artificial intelligence?

B: It's a good question, Stevie, but it's too difficult for me to answer. Actually, AI was not invented by one person, but rather, by many groups of scientists. I'm not sure of their names, though. So, class, if there is any other question, 2) [a) lie / b) raise / c) rise] your hand.

Ⅱ. Each dialogue below is followed by a summary. For the dialogues, select the most appropriate option from the list below to fill in numbered blank spaces (1) to (4) and write the matching letter, not the word(s). For each Summary, write an appropriate word starting with two or three designated letters to fill in numbered blank spaces 5) ( ) and 6) ( ). Write your answers on the ANSWER SHEET. (2×12)

1) Kim : Hey, Joe. Why are you here? You told me that you (1) Europe this week, and that this time today, you'd (2) some great museums like The Louvre Museum.

Joe : Hi, Kim. Actually, I (3) the trip off, because recently, it turned out that I could no longer rely on my parents for travel costs. My mom suddenly called me the other night, and told me that she and my father would (4) off before long.

a) attend to b) be laid c) be visiting d) called e) were going to f) will visit

〈Summary〉

When Kim 5) ( ) Joe about his trip to Europe, he 6) ( ) to her that a sudden change in his family situation had made Joe give it up.

2) Duan : Hi, Tina. You (1) have something to say about your brother.

Tina : Yeah, Duan. Gregg messes around all time. I found the windows upstairs open the other night when a couple of typhoons (2), so I questioned him until he admitted. The next morning, he ( ) the door unlocked when he ( ) home. I found that when I got home. He never learns.

Duan : You constantly criticize him, but I know you and your brother need each other. He wants you to pay attention, and you want to meet his expectations as you like taking care of him. He is special for you. I know this all, because you (4) quite happy while you're talking about him.

a) are coming about b) left c) look d) seem to e) was keeping f) were approaching

〈Summary〉

Tina is always 5) ( ) about her brother, but Duan observes from her tone and facial expression that Tina likes taking care of his own brother, and he realizes that this 6) ( ) him someone special for her.

Ⅲ. Read each dialogue and passage, and select the most appropriate option from the list below to fill in numbered blank spaces (1) to (4). Write the matching letter, not the word, on the ANSWER SHEET. (1×8)

1) A : I heard that James gave his girlfriend a diamond ring. Is that correct?

B : If you mean Sussane, that's true. I know she is pleased with the present, because she (1) about her ring to anybody around her, but I wonder if she (2) him.

A : What do you mean? Does she go out with someone else?

B : Don't you know that they broke up once? They've made up recently, and James suddenly proposed to Sussane. I guess (3) surprise it was for her! Anyway, her beauty stands out, and she knows that. Maybe, James (4) that expensive ring for the wrong person.

a) bought b) is marrying c) how d) is talking e) tells f) will discuss g) what a

2) My name is Michael Jackson. It's my real name, but the name may remind you of "the King of Pop." Unfortunately, I don't sing or dance. Instead, I enjoy manga and anime, and I'm here in Japan to learn more about Japanese culture and technology. If you (1) my silly story interesting, I'll be happy.

My favorite manga title is Naruto. It's a story about a boy who dreams to become the strongest ninja, a spy specially trained in military skills, in Japan. Ninja is thought to have played a unique role as a special guard to (2) with secret issues in the Sengoku period. Ever since I came across Naruto, Ninja and its age have attracted me.

I'm also interested in submarines. Submarines are often called "the Ninja of the Sea." Back in the States, I saw several nuclear-powered submarines in port, but I believe that Japanese submarines, ~~non-nuclear-powered,~~ are far better than their U.S. counterparts in quietness: Japanese submarines (3) almost silent in operation.

I'm not the active type of person, but I'm really interested in cultures with both a long history and cutting-edge technology, like Japan's, and ~~their local~~ people. I'm sure that I'll fully enjoy my school life here until my one-year study program ends, and I hope I'll (4) the Japanese language just like you, at this time next year. Thank you.

a) be speaking b) deal c) ends d) find e) remain f) will think IV In the dialogues below, numbered parts 1) and 2) [ ] contain five terms, but one of them is not required to complete the sentence. Rearrange the four remaining terms in the correct order, and write the numbers of the terms that go in the first and third places on the ANSWER SHEET. (2×5)

1) A : I heard that you couldn't arrive at the English class this morning on time, 1) [1. because / 2. down / 3. had broken / 4. turned / 5. your bike]. Were you able to hand in your English assignment?

B : Yeah, I made it. I 2) [1. down / 2. in / 3. it / 4. managed to / 5. turn] by the deadline.

2) A : Hi, John. These days you really 1) [1. after / 2. are looking / 3. handsome dad / 4. take / 5. your]. You'll be popular with girls when you grow up.

B : Don't kid me, Mary. I don't want to be a guy like my dad. First of all, guys who 2) [1. a couch / 2. all / 3. are laying down / 4. lie / 5. on] day long every weekend will never attract girls, even if they look good.

3) A : When they were young, I 1) [1. my holidays / 2. spend / 3. used / 4. to / 5. was using] with my children, but now, they don't seem to like to be with me.

B : I know what you mean. Seeing no children at home when I take a day 2) [1. away / 2. down / 3. lets / 4. me / 5. off] sometimes, even if I know that they've become independent.

4) A : Your homeroom teacher looks young. Do you 1) [1. does / 2. he / 3. how / 4. know / 5. old] is.

B : I don't know, but 2) [1. be / 2. may / 3. the / 4. there / 5. yearbooks] in the library. You'll be able to know his age, if you find the book of the year when he graduated. Actually, he is a graduate of this school.

V. For each dialogue below, fill in numbered blank spaces 1) to 3) with Three or Four appropriate words including one designated word. Write the words on the ANSWER SHEET. (2×9)

1) A : You and my daughter Cathy seem to be good friends. How long 1) [have] each other?

B : More than three years. 2) [entered] junior high school, I came to know her, because we were in the same homeroom class. We made friends shortly afterwards. I 3) [going] join the brass band at first, but as I knew that she was a member of the tennis team, I changed my mind and joined her team.

2) A : Dad, someone [knocking] the door over and over. I can't sleep at all, because it's noisy and annoying. Actually, 2) [keeps] awake.

B : Okay, don't worry, son. 2) [go] and check it out.

3) A : Hey, Pete. 1) [called] just a while ago, but no one answered it. Didn't you notice it?

B : Hi, Jessica. Maybe 2) [I] my head at the bathroom, when my phone rang. So, what's up?

A : It's about the barbecue you're hosting this evening. The clouds are rolling in, so I think tha 2) [rain] soon. If it pours, you'll need to cancel it. What do you think?

VI. In each of the sentences below, underlined blank spaces 1) to 3) each contain three words. Add THREE MORE words, to make a total of SIX words. You CANNOT change the order of the given words. Write your answers on the ANSWER SHEET.

e.g. I hear that [you / going / leave] Osaka tomorrow morning. Is this correct?

→ [you are going to leave for] (2×3)

1) You are a member of the tennis team, and the high school tournament that you're participating in for the first time is coming near. You have mixed feelings of nervousness and excitement. Unfortunately, though, the weather forecast says that the weather of the day may well get rough. You think that the tournament [may / put / next] week, but anyway, you hope that they make a decision as soon as possible.

2) You are a freshman at high school. You feel a little nervous about the first regular tests. You guess that the exams in high school will be totally different from those in junior high school. You know that you will not [the / exams / unless] harder.

3) You're confident about English, while you're terrible at physics. When you read in English about the heliocentric theory, the theoretical model positioning the Sun, not the Earth, at the center of the solar system, you were able to understand the English, but were unable to realize the nature of the theory: the textbook told you that [earth / around / sun]. Even now, you doubt the theory.